Offering, receiving and soliciting Gifts or favors.

- (a) No Person shall give to any Board Member or Employee, or to the spouse, domestic partner or minor child of either of them, and none of them shall solicit or accept, any anonymous Gift.

(b) No Person shall give or offer to give to any Board Member or Employee or to the spouse, domestic partner or minor child of either of them, and none of them shall solicit or accept, anything of value, including, but not limited to, a Gift, favor or promise of future employment, based upon any mutual understanding, either explicit or implicit, that the votes, official actions, decisions or judgments of any Board Member or Employee, concerning the business of the Fund would be influenced thereby. It shall be presumed that a nonmonetary Gift having a value of less than $50.00 does not involve such an understanding.

(c) No Person who has an Economic Interest in any matter involving Fund business, including, without limitation, any investment management or administrative matter, shall give, directly or indirectly, to any Board Member or Employee whose decision or action may substantially affect such transaction, or to the spouse, domestic partner or minor child of such Board Member or Employee, and neither Board Members nor Employees shall solicit or accept, any Gift of (i) cash or its equivalent regardless of value, or (ii) an item or service other than one of nominal value (less than $50.00) provided, however, nothing herein shall be construed to prohibit such Board Member or Employee from accepting Gifts from Relatives.

(d) Except as prohibited in subsections (a), (b) and (c), nothing in this Policy shall prohibit any person from giving or receiving: (i) opportunities, benefits and services that are available on the same conditions as for the general public; (ii) an award publicly presented in recognition of public service; (iii) commercially reasonable loans made in the ordinary course of the lender's business; (iv) political contributions, provided they are reported to the extent required by law; (v) reasonable hosting, including travel and expenses, entertainment, meals or refreshments furnished in connection with public events, appearances, meetings or ceremonies related to official Fund business, if furnished by the sponsor of such public event; (vi) reasonable hosting, including travel and expenses, entertainment, meals or refreshments furnished in connection with an event organized for charitable or political purposes if furnished by the sponsor of such charitable or political event; (vii) reimbursement of seminar or conference fees when the seminar relates to the Board Member's or Employee's job duties and is sponsored by the Fund's consultants or agents, or persons or entities seeking official action from the Fund; or (viii) anything provided by an individual as the basis of a personal friendship unless the Board Member or Employee has reason to believe that under the circumstances, the Gift was provided because of the official position or employment of the Board Member or Employee and not because of the personal friendship.

(e) Any Gift given in violation of the provisions of this Policy shall be returned to the giver of the Gift or, if appropriate, transferred to a charitable organization.

(f) Nothing in this Policy shall prohibit any Board Member or Employee, or his or her spouse, domestic partner or minor child, from accepting a Gift on the Fund's behalf; provided, however, the person accepting the Gift shall promptly report receipt of the Gift

No Board Member or Employee, or the spouse, domestic partner or minor child of any of them, shall solicit or accept any money or other thing of value including, but not limited to, Gifts, favors, services or promises of future employment, in return for advice or assistance on matters concerning the operation or business of the Fund; provided, however, that nothing in this Policy shall prevent a Board Member or Employee or the spouse or domestic partner of a Board Member or Employee from accepting Compensation for services wholly unrelated to the Board Member's or Employee's duties and responsibilities to the Fund and rendered as part of his or her non-Fund employment, occupation or profession.

Use or disclosure of confidential information.

(b) To avoid even an appearance of impropriety, any Board Member who has a business relationship with a person or entity with a matter pending before the Fund shall publicly disclose the nature of such business relationship on the record at a regularly scheduled meeting of the Board of Trustees and shall also notify the executive director of such relationship in writing as soon as the business relationship arises. The Board of Trustees shall make such disclosures available for public inspection and copying. The Board Member shall abstain from voting on any matter in which he or she has a Financial or Economic Interest but shall be counted present for purposes of a quorum. The obligation to report a potential conflict or interest under this subsection arises as soon as the Board Member is or should be aware of such potential conflict. (c) Any Board Member or Employee who has a Financial or Economic Interest in any entity seeking to do business with the Fund or with respect to any matter pending before the Fund shall disclose the nature of such interest to the Board of Trustees. The obligation to disclose under this subsection arises as soon as the Board Member or Employee is or should be aware of the pendency of the matter.

Representation of other persons.

No Board Member or Employee may have an Economic Interest in the representation of, any person, in any judicial or quasi-judicial proceeding before any administrative agency or court in which the Fund is a party and that person's interest is adverse to that of the Fund.

Prohibited conduct.

No Board Member or Employee or the spouse or domestic partner of such Board Member or Employee, or any entity in which such Board Member or Employee or his or her spouse or domestic partner has a Financial Interest, shall apply for, solicit, accept or receive a loan of any amount from any person who is either doing business or seeking to do business with the Fund; provided, however, that nothing in this section prohibits application for, solicitation for, acceptance of or receipt of a loan from a financial lending institution, if the loan is negotiated at arm's length and is made at a market rate in the ordinary course of the lender's business. This subsection shall not apply to an entity in which the only financial interest of the Board Member or Employee is his or her spouse or domestic partner's independent occupation, profession or employment.

Article 2 PENALTIES FOR VIOLATION

Sanctions.

Any Employee found to have violated any of the provisions of this Policy, or to have furnished false or misleading information to the Board of Trustees, shall be subject to employment sanctions, including discharge, in accordance with procedures under which the employee may otherwise be disciplined. Any Board Member found to have accepted a Gift in violation of this Policy shall be required to reimburse the Person providing such Gift the cost of the Gift above $50.00 and shall provide proof of such reimbursement to the Board.

Invalid actions.

All Fund contracts shall include a provision requiring compliance with this Policy. Any contracts negotiated, entered into, or performed in violation of any of the provisions of this Policy shall be voidable as to the Fund.

Other remedies.

Nothing in this Policy shall preclude the Fund from maintaining an action for an accounting for any pecuniary benefit received by any person in violation of this chapter or other law, or to recover damages for violation of this Policy.
