Foreword

The following information is designed to assist members when their retirement benefits are being considered for possible division in divorce/legal separation proceedings. The Policemen's Annuity and Benefit Fund ("PABF" or "Fund") office handles inquiries and benefit information requests for these purposes. A QILDRO (Qualified Illinois Domestic Relations Order) is an Illinois court order that transfers part or all of a member's retirement benefits to an alternate payee.

Much of the information provided is based on the express statutory language and requirements imposed upon Illinois public retirement systems by the QILDRO statute. This legislation, with an effective date of July 1, 1999, amended the Illinois Pension Code by adding new section 1-119 [40 ILCS 5/1-119], and by modifying portions of the Illinois Marriage and Dissolution of Marriage Act [750 ILCS 5/503]. New modifications and clarifications were added to the Illinois Pension Code 1-119 (40 ILCS 5/1-119) effective July 1, 2006. The forms and instructions enclosed in this booklet pertain to benefits that will be effective (ordered by the judge and received by this Fund) after July 1, 2006. These forms will be invalid if provided to this Fund prior to July 1, 2006.

This subject matter may be of considerable financial significance. It is strongly recommended that the member obtain competent legal and/or other expert assistance. This information is provided with the understanding that the Fund is not rendering legal, financial, or other professional advice. PABF does not assume responsibility for the specific consequences resulting from application of the information in this packet to a particular member or alternate payee. Inquiries concerning a QILDRO may be directed to the PABF office at \(312\) 744-3891.

Disclaimer

The Fund has provided the enclosed materials based on the best information available at the time of last publication. Similarly the Fund will provide benefit information which is accurate at the time of the request.

The Fund has no responsibility to recalculate information previously provided, nor to inform an alternate payee regarding any statutory changes that may effect the calculation of a member's benefit, unless the Fund is subsequently served with a subpoena for new QILDRO benefit information. Receipt of a modified QILDRO could adversely affect an alternate payee's payment priority.

The law provides that the Fund, as a result of the existence of a QILDRO, will never be required to disburse to the member and his/her alternate payee(s) accumulated amounts greater than the amount that would have been otherwise disbursed to the member. It is the responsibility of the alternate payee and his counsel to be aware of, and in compliance with, the Illinois statutes governing QILDRO as they may be amended or reinterpreted over the life of the QILDRO.

PABF Benefits and Divorce

What is a QILDRO?

“QILDRO” is an acronym for Qualified Illinois Domestic Relations Order (pronounced kwil-dro). A QILDRO is a court order issued by an Illinois court that directs an Illinois public retirement system such as the Policemen's Annuity and Benefit Fund to pay an alternate payee a portion of a member's retirement benefit, or certain refunds or lump sum death benefit if applicable. An alternate payee is typically an ex-spouse, but may be a current spouse, child, or other dependent.

The QILDRO law applies to Illinois public pension systems governed by the Illinois Pension Code, 40 ILCS 5. Illinois public pension funds may only pay benefits to a former spouse according to a QILDRO. Illinois retirement systems cannot pay a former spouse based on a member's judgment for dissolution of marriage or marital settlement agreement. QILDROs are different from, and should not be confused with Qualified Domestic Relations Orders, or QDROs. State law does not allow public retirement systems to honor QDROs.

Division of Benefits

PABF benefits may be a marital asset. Your personal attorney should advise you whether a former spouse is entitled to any of your PABF benefits. The PABF cannot provide legal advice.

PABF may only pay benefits to a former spouse according to a QILDRO. The PABF cannot pay a former spouse based on a QDRO, judgment for dissolution of marriage, or marital settlement agreement. Even if PABF has a valid QILDRO on file, payment cannot be accelerated to pay a former spouse before the PABF member is paid. An alternate payee will only receive payment if and when the PABF member receives payment. An alternate payee will never receive more or different benefits than the PABF member is eligible to receive.

The new QILDRO (effective July 1, 2006) is intended to give added flexibility by allowing the divorcing couple and their attorneys to select from a variety of methods to allocate the amount payable

How have QILDROs changed?

The original QILDRO law took effect July 1, 1999. The 2005 legislation is a significant revision of the QILDRO law. The new QILDRO to the alternate payee. The PABF member and former spouse, with advice from their attorneys and financial advisors, have some questions to consider:

- To which benefits will the QILDRO apply? The possibilities are retirement benefit, partial refund, a refund of contributions, or lump sum death benefit if applicable. The QILDRO may apply to some or all of the above, depending on what is decided in the divorce.
- What method will be used to determine the alternate payee's share? Will the QILDRO specify dollar amounts? Will the QILDRO use a percentage of the marital portion? Or will the QILDRO use a percentage as of the retirement date?
- If using the marital portion benefit calculation formula, how will it be defined?
- If the QILDRO uses percentages, who will be responsible for obtaining the Calculation Order and sending it to PABF?
- Will monthly retirement payments continue until one of you dies, or will the QILDRO terminate after a specific number of payments to the alternate payee?

You and your attorney should carefully review the QILDRO law and the required forms. The new law is detailed to help you consider the necessary issues. PABF will provide benefit information to help you determine how the alternate payee's share is to be allocated. The PABF will also provide general information about PABF benefits, procedures, and technical form requirements as explained in this publication. However, it is up to the divorcing couple and their attorneys to decide how to complete the QILDRO and the Calculation Order, if required. Every situation is unique. The PABF cannot help you make these decisions, or perform any calculations for you.

law, effective July 1, 2006, enacted the following major changes to the prior QILDRO law:

The amount payable to the alternate payee may be expressed as a percentage or a specific dollar amount. Percentages were not allowed under the old law. Under the old law, the only way to express the alternate payee's share was a specific dollar amount.

The new law introduces a new court order, the QILDRO Calculation Court Order. This court order, separate from the QILDRO, provides the numerical information that the retirement system must have to implement a QILDRO that uses percentages to allocate the alternate payee's share. The Calculation Order is not required if dollar amounts are used in the QILDRO rather than percentages.

The alternate payee may receive a share of any lump-sum death benefit that would be payable upon the member's death. The old QILDRO law did not reach death benefits. Monthly survivor benefits are still not reachable through a QILDRO.

In addition to these key features, the new QILDRO law specifies what benefit information must be provided by retirement systems and what events will cause the retirement system to provide benefit information for divorce purposes. The new QILDRO allows payments to continue until the death of the member or alternate payee, whichever occurs first. Alternatively, the QILDRO may terminate after a specified number of payments to the alternate payee.

The new QILDRO law does not change the law that determines appropriate division of marital assets. A member should consult a personal attorney about what assets are included in the couple's marital property and about the proper division of those assets. PABF cannot give legal advice about the proper division of retirement benefits in a given case.

What is a Calculation Order?

The QILDRO Calculation Court Order (Calculation Order) is a court order issued by an Illinois court that provides numerical information determined in the divorce proceedings to instruct the retirement system how much to pay the alternate payee. The Calculation Order is a separate court order in addition to the QILDRO.

A Calculation Order is only necessary if the QILDRO indicates that the alternate payee will receive a percentage of the benefit. No Calculation Order is required if the QILDRO expresses the amounts payable to the alternate payee as specific dollar amounts.

If you do not elect the dollar amount method of allocating benefits to the former spouse in the QILDRO, then you must send a Calculation Order to PABF before the Fund can pay the alternate payee. Generally, the QILDRO would be issued at the time of divorce, and the parties would return to court to obtain the Calculation Order at the time of the member's retirement, when the amount of the retirement benefit becomes known.

You must use a specific Calculation Order form. The form should be obtained from PABF as explained in the "Required Forms" section of this publication. It is very important to include all of the language in the form, even for the sections that you do not complete. If you leave out sections of the form, PABF will reject your Calculation Order because there is no way to tell whether you intended to leave those sections out, or if you inadvertently omitted them. Remember, no wording changes or alterations to the form are permitted.

PABF must implement valid court orders that it receives, but cannot tell you whether the court orders are consistent with the terms of your divorce. PABF will provide benefit information, but we cannot do the calculations for you. PABF cannot determine whether the numbers in the Calculation Order are accurate or whether the calculations are in accordance with the underlying QILDRO, agreement, or judgment. The sections that you complete in the Calculation Order must correspond with the sections completed in the QILDRO. However, PABF cannot reject a Calculation Order because the calculations are not accurate or are not what was decided in your divorce.

What benefits may be paid to a former spouse?

An alternate payee may only receive certain benefits that the PABF member is entitled to receive. These are:

Retirement benefits

A termination refund the member may be eligible to receive

Partial refunds that the member may be eligible to receive

A lump-sum death benefit payable upon the member's death

The QILDRO may allocate portions of only one, several, or all of these benefits and refunds to the alternate payee.

What is a termination refund?

The QILDRO allows the alternate payee to receive a portion of a refund of retirement contributions that the member may receive upon withdrawal from PABF employment. Upon accepting a termination refund, the member forfeits all rights to PABF benefits, unless benefits are reinstated through repayment of the refund plus interest after returning to PABF service for at least three years.

What is a partial refund?

The QILDRO allows the alternate payee to receive a portion of a partial refund that the member may receive. For PABF members, partial refunds payable at the time of retirement may be any of the following:

- Refund of surviving spouse benefit contributions payable to a member, if the member does not have a spouse at the time of retirement.
- Refund of contributions for excess optional plan credit.

The amount an alternate payee may possibly receive from all partial refunds will never exceed what is provided in the QILDRO.

What benefits are not payable through a QILDRO?

Monthly survivor benefits, disability benefits, and health insurance cannot be reached through a QILDRO. A QILDRO does not provide any insurance coverage or make a former spouse eligible to participate in a PABF member's insurance.

What is the consent requirement?

If PABF membership started before July 1, 1999, the effective date of the original QILDRO law, a QILDRO will only be valid if the PABF member consents in writing. The member's signed consent form must accompany the QILDRO. You must use a specific consent form. The form should be obtained from PABF as explained in the "Required Forms" section of this publication. No alterations to the form are permitted.

The consent form must be signed by the member. The law does not provide that the court or anyone else may sign the consent form if the member is absent or refuses to sign the consent. The court does not have authority to order the member to sign the consent form.

There is no consent requirement if PABF membership started on or after July 1, 1999.

What about death benefits?

The new QILDRO law allows an alternate payee to receive a share of any lump-sum death benefit payable upon a PABF member's death. However, monthly survivor benefits are never reachable through a QILDRO.

Do not make erroneous assumptions about PABF death benefits. Here are some things to keep in mind when considering survivor benefits in the context of divorce:

- The member's former spouse will not receive any death benefit from PABF unless designated by the member as a beneficiary or the QILDRO allocates a share of the lump-sum death benefit to the alternate payee.
- A PABF member has a statutory right to name any person or entity as a beneficiary and to change the beneficiary designation at any time, even if a divorce requires the ex-spouse to be designated as beneficiary. PABF cannot compel the member to name or prevent the member from naming a specific person as a beneficiary. The divorce may impose independent obligations. Please consult your personal attorney about those obligations.
- With the exception of payment pursuant to a QILDRO, an after-death lump-sum refund of only the member's contributions would first be payable to the children of the member regardless of whom the member named as beneficiary.

What about disability benefits?

No PABF disability benefit or disability retirement annuity is payable to a former spouse. The member must meet certain eligibility requirements to receive a disability benefit or annuity.

What about health insurance benefits?

A QILDRO does not provide any insurance coverage or make a former spouse eligible to participate in a PABF sponsored plan, the 'City of Chicago Annuitant Health Care Plan'.

What about past or out-of-state divorces?

If you are already divorced and your ex-spouse is entitled to share in your retirement benefits, it may be possible to request an Illinois court to enter a QILDRO. Please seek advice from your personal attorney if you wish to obtain a QILDRO based on a past divorce.

If your divorce occurred in another state, it may be possible to request an Illinois court to enter a QILDRO. Courts in other states do not have statutory authority or jurisdiction to issue QILDROs. However, an Illinois court may be requested to enter a QILDRO based on your out-of-state divorce. Please seek advice from your personal attorney if you were divorced in a state other than Illinois and you wish to obtain a QILDRO.

PABF does not honor QDROs

Some attorneys unfamiliar with public pensions assume that PABF is subject to Qualified Domestic Relations Orders, or QDROs. In fact, PABF does not honor QDROs. Illinois courts have ruled that public pension funds are not subject to QDROs. The Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, commonly known as ERISA, does not apply to PABF. Article 5 of the Illinois Pension Code, 40 ILCS 5/5, governs PABF benefits. A QILDRO is the only way that the Fund may pay a former spouse any of your PABF benefits.

Benefit Information Provided by PABF

PABF will provide benefit information in response to a subpoena or the member's request, in response to receipt of a QILDRO that uses percentages, when the member retires, and upon notice of the member's death if the QILDRO allocates a lump-sum death benefit to the alternate payee. All information will be provided within 45 days of the triggering event. If requested, PABF will also provide general information about benefits, the relevant QILDRO procedures, rules, and the required forms.

It is our policy to provide information for divorce purposes showing total, actual career information on our database at the time of the request, assuming the earliest age at which the member could receive a non-discounted annuity, i.e., age 50 or 20 years of service. In preparing a benefit statement for divorce, PABF does not speculate as to potential future events such as early retirement, reciprocal retirement, additional service credit, future salary increases, purchase of optional, or refunded service, or statutory changes. Hypothetical estimates for retired members assuming facts that are different from the annuitant's actual retirement record are not provided. PABF does not provide actuarial opinions as to present market value of a member's benefits or other interests.

In response to subpoena or member's request To help the parties value the benefit for divorce purposes, PABF provides a customized benefit information for divorce statement. The statement reflects the member's actual PABF service credit and contribution history, based on data on file with the Fund at the time the statement is requested. The statement includes a monthly annuity estimate well as other information pertinent to valuing the benefit.

The statement will be provided to members in response to their request. Due to our confidentiality rule, the statement may only be provided to spouses (current and former) and third parties (including attorneys) in response to a subpoena or with the member's written authorization. Contact the PABF at (312) 744-3891 to request benefit information for divorce.

Please plan ahead and request the information at least four to six weeks before it is needed. We are unable to accommodate "rush" requests for imminent court dates.

If requested, the Fund will also provide the benefits brochure, which contains general information about PABF benefits, and this QILDRO publication, which explains the relevant QILDRO procedures, rules, and the required forms. The Fund's administrative QILDRO rules are also available upon request.

In response to a percentage QILDRO When PABF receives a QILDRO that uses a percentage method of allocating retirement benefits to the alternate payee, the Fund will provide the following information:

If QILDRO is received prior to retirement:

- Initial Fund membership
- Amount of permissive and regular service credit
- Non-reduced monthly retirement benefit estimate
- Earliest date when non-reduced monthly retirement benefit will become payable
- Permissive service credit purchased
- If applicable, refund upon termination of employment or partial contribution refund
- Whether member has filed retirement application
- Intended retirement date, if member has filed retirement application

If QILDRO is received after effective date of retirement:

- Effective date of retirement
- Date retirement benefits commenced (or will commence)
- Amount of permissive and regular service credit
- Actual monthly retirement benefit

At retirement

- Effective date of retirement
- Date retirement benefits commenced (or will commence)

- Amount of permissive and regular service credit
- Actual monthly retirement benefit
- If percentage QILDRO on file with PABF but no Calculation Order has been received, notify that Calculation Order is needed to implement the QILDRO

In response to a Calculation Order

- Notify of receipt
- Notify if no underlying QILDRO on file with PABF
- Notify if underlying QILDRO does not clearly indicate amount payable

At notice of member's death

- Lump-sum death benefit amount
- Only provided if QILDRO allocates share of lump- sum death benefit to alternate payee

Completing the QILDRO

It is important that you use the correct QILDRO form. The PABF cannot accept the new QILDRO form until July 1, 2006. The Fund cannot accept the old QILDRO form beginning July 1, 2006.

To make sure you are using the correct form, you must determine the date that the PABF will receive a certified copy of the QILDRO issued by the court. If you will send the QILDRO so that the Fund will receive it before July 1, 2006, you must use the old QILDRO form. If you will send the QILDRO so that the Fund will receive it on or after July 1, 2006, you must use the new QILDRO form. Remember, a QILDRO is a court order, so in determining when you will send the QILDRO to PABF, you must allow time to get the QILDRO issued by the court.

To allow flexibility that has been desired by some divorcing couples and their attorneys, the new QILDRO form is detailed and longer than the old form. Certain sections contain multiple options from which you must select only one option. If you fill in more than one option where the form indicates that you are to select only one option, the QILDRO will be rejected by PABF.

Do not omit any sections in the QILDRO form and do not modify any wording. If some sections do not apply, simply leave them blank. Do not omit any sections from the form provided by PABF. If you do, the QILDRO will be unacceptable and you will need to obtain an amended QILDRO from the court that complies with the form requirements.

Section IX of the QILDRO form is the marital portion benefit calculation formula. The chart on page 11 of this publication will help you decide whether you need to complete Section IX of the QILDRO form. If you are completing Section

IX, you need to understand the meaning of “regular service” and “permissive service”. These terms are defined at the beginning of the QILDRO law. For PABF members, “regular service” means service credit earned by the member and also includes repayment of refunded service. “Permissive service” means additional service credit purchased by the PABF member such as a leave of absence or military service.

Section IX of the QILDRO form also provides a selection for “other”. All PABF service credit is either regular or permissive according to the QILDRO law definitions. There is no “other service credit category for PABF members.

Be sure to keep a copy of your QILDRO if you intend to submit a Calculation Order at a later date. You will need the underlying QILDRO to prepare the Calculation Order.

Completing the Calculation Order

The QILDRO Calculation Court Order (Calculation Order) is a feature of the new QILDRO law. PABF can only accept Calculation Orders for new law QILDROs submitted on or after July 1, 2006.

The Calculation Order provides the “number” that the Fund needs to implement a percentage QILDRO. The Calculation Order must be based on an underlying QILDRO between the same PABF member and alternate payee. If PABF receives a Calculation Order without an underlying QILDRO, the Calculation Order cannot be processed and PABF will notify the parties. The sections you complete in the Calculation Order must be the same sections completed in the QILDRO. If the Calculation Order does not match the QILDRO or does not clearly indicate the amounts payable to the alternate payee, PABF will notify the parties.

You do not need to submit a Calculation Order if all of the amounts in the QILDRO are specific dollar amounts. The Calculation Order is only required if the underlying QILDRO uses a percentage method of allocating benefits to the alternate payee. Be sure you complete the same sections in the QILDRO and Calculation Order.

As mentioned previously, the sections that you complete in the Calculation Order must correspond exactly with the sections completed in the underlying QILDRO. You will need a copy of the underlying QILDRO to complete the Calculation Order. The following chart will assist you in determining which sections of the Calculation Order you need to complete so that it will correspond with the QILDRO.

QILDRO and Calculation Order Comparison Chart

Filing Procedure

Where to send

QILDROs and Calculation Orders should be sent to:

Policemen's Annuity and Benefit Fund
221 N. LaSalle Street, Suite 1626
Chicago, IL 60601

Processing Fees

A $50 non-refundable processing fee, by check payable to the PABF, must be submitted to the Fund along with a certified copy of the QILDRO.

If you are submitting a Calculation Order, a separate $50 processing fee, by check payable to the PABF, must be submitted to the Fund along with a certified copy of the Calculation Order.

The processing fees are intended to help defray the Fund's administrative costs associated with QILDRO and Calculation Order processing.

Certified Copy Required

Remember to send PABF a certified copy of the court order. A certified copy bears the clerk of court's seal or stamp certifying the document as a true and correct copy of the original document. A plain or file-stamped copy will be rejected.

Notice from PABF

The member, the alternate payee, and the attorney who sent the court order will receive a notice within 45 days after the PABF received the order.

The order will be date-stamped upon receipt and deemed received on that date. The notice will also indicate whether the order is valid and other pertinent information regarding the order. If not valid, the notice will specify the reason or reasons.

All deficiencies must be corrected before we may honor the QILDRO. In most cases, deficiencies are easily corrected, for instance, by sending the $50 fee or a certified copy of the order. If the order is defective, it will be necessary to obtain a new or amended order from the court. PABF will send a new notice in response to each correction or amended court order.

An invalid QILDRO has no effect on the member's PABF benefits. No QILDRO is valid until all deficiencies have been corrected.

Implementing the QILDRO

The QILDRO will be placed in the member's record and will remain dormant until the member begins receiving retirement benefits, or a refund or lump-sum death benefit subject to the QILDRO becomes payable. When one of these events occurs, PABF will send notice to the alternate payee at the last address on file with the Fund. The alternate payee must return a completed address verification form before PABF may pay the alternate payee. In addition, if the QILDRO uses percentages, the Fund cannot pay the alternate payee until a Calculation Order has been received.

What if PABF has not received a Calculation Order?

If the QILDRO uses percentages, PABF must receive a Calculation Order in order to pay the alternate payee. Generally, the Calculation Order would be submitted to PABF when the amount of the retirement benefit becomes known. You will receive benefit information from PABF when a benefit or refund becomes payable. You can use this information to prepare the Calculation Order.

When retirement occurs long after divorce, the attorneys may no longer be representing their former clients, may be difficult to locate, or may even be dead or otherwise unavailable to see that the Calculation Order is entered. It is imperative to understand that if no one follows through and PABF does not receive a Calculation Order, even a valid percentage QILDRO on file with the Fund cannot be implemented. The divorcing couple and their attorneys should work out the details during the divorce regarding who will be responsible for obtaining the Calculation Order and sending a certified copy to PABF, to ensure that the QILDRO can be implemented when the member retires. Remember, the alternate payee will not receive payment from PABF based on a percentage QILDRO until a Calculation Order is received.

Monthly retirement benefit

When a retirement benefit subject to a percentage QILDRO on file with PABF becomes payable, if no Calculation Order has been received, the Fund will determine an anticipated payment to the alternate payee based on information in the QILDRO, if it is possible to do so. PABF will hold the alternate payee's anticipated payment and begin paying the member's monthly retirement benefit, less the amount held for the alternate payee, pending receipt of the Calculation Order. Once the Calculation Order is received, PABF will adjust the amounts payable in accordance with the Calculation Order and begin paying the alternate payee. However, if it is not possible for PABF to determine an anticipated payment based only on the QILDRO, then neither the member nor the alternate payee will be paid until the Calculation Order is received.

Refund or lump-sum death benefit

When a refund or lump-sum death benefit subject to a percentage QILDRO on file with the PABF becomes payable, if no Calculation Order has been received, the Fund will hold the refund until the Calculation Order is received.

What if the alternate payee is missing?

An alternate payee must keep us informed of any name or address changes in order to receive payment. The law does not require us to search for a missing alternate payee, other than sending notice to the last address reported to us.

If the notice to the alternate payee is undeliverable, PABF will hold the amount payable to the alternate payee for 180 days from the date the Fund sent the notice or the date the benefit becomes payable, whichever is later. The amount held will not bear interest. If PABF is notified of the alternate payee's current address within 180 days, the Fund will pay the amount held to the alternate payee.

If PABF does not learn of the alternate payee's current address within 180 days, the Fund will pay the amount held as it would be payable absent a QILDRO. If PABF later becomes aware of the alternate payee's current address, the Fund will implement the QILDRO with the next affected payment, but the alternate payee will have no right to any amounts previously paid.

Effective Date of QILDRO

The QILDRO takes effect with the first affected payment that occurs at least 30 days after PABF received a valid QILDRO. But remember, if the QILDRO uses percentages, the Fund cannot pay the alternate payee until a valid Calculation Order has also been received.

The PABF annuity payments are disbursed on the last business day of each month. Generally, you should expect about a three-month processing period from the date that the Fund has received a valid QILDRO, and Calculation Order if required, until the alternate payee begins to receive monthly payments from PABF. During the processing period, the couple will need to make arrangements between themselves if the divorce obligates the PABF member to pay a portion of the monthly retirement benefit to the former spouse.

Expiration of QILDRO

For monthly retirement benefits, the QILDRO must specify when payments to the alternate payee will terminate. This will be one of the following:

Upon the death of the member or alternate payee, whichever is the first to occur;

After a certain number of payments are made to the alternate payee or upon the death of the member or alternate payee, whichever is the first to occur;

A QILDRO also ends when the member receives a refund that terminates participation in PABF. A QILDRO may also be terminated by a valid court order expressly terminating the QILDRO.

Amended Orders

An amended QILDRO or Calculation Order that has been entered by the court should be sent to the Fund in the same manner as the original order. A certified copy of the amended order is required, accompanied by a $50 processing fee for each amended order submitted to PABF. If a Fund member is subject to multiple QILDROs involving different alternate payees, submitting an amended QILDRO may cause that alternate payee to lose the priority of payment held by the original QILDRO.

Required Form Samples

The QILDRO, Calculation Order, and consent forms are detailed and should not be retyped. The easiest way to ensure that you are using the correct forms and have not inadvertently added, modified, or omitted language is to use the forms provided by the PABF. You may obtain the QILDRO packet by calling the Fund office at (312) 744-3891. We strongly urge you to use the forms provided by PABF rather than retyping the forms.

Income Tax Reporting

The member and alternate payee will be mailed income tax form 1099-R by February 1st of each year for the previous calendar year. The form will provide the taxable and nontaxable portions of the benefit payments.

Information about the PABF

The benefit program administered by the PABF is a governmental plan organized under Article 5 of the Illinois Pension Code [40 ILCS 5].
