

EXHIBIT B
REQUIRED DISCLOSURES

Respondents are required to provide complete disclosure of each of the following. For purposes of these required disclosures, an Investment Consultant Candidate must undertake an affirmative effort to determine the appropriate responses to the required disclosures as part of the investment adviser's response to the RFP. A response that the Investment Consultant Candidate has a "pay to play" or a political donation policy is not responsive. The Investment Consultant Candidate is expected to inquire of each individual subject to these disclosures as to the individual's answers. The representations are considered material.

1. Pursuant to Section 1-113.14(c)(3) and (12) of the Illinois Pension Code, the method for charging and measuring fees, including disclosure of the direct and indirect fees, commissions, penalties, and other compensation, including reimbursement for expenses, that may be paid by or on behalf of the Investment Consultant Candidate in connection with the provision of Investment Services to the Fund.

2. Pursuant to Section 1-113.14(c)(5) of the Illinois Pension Code, the names and addresses of: the Investment Consultant Candidate ; any entity that is a parent of, or owns a controlling interest in, the Investment Consultant Candidate ; any entity that is a subsidiary of, or in which a controlling interest is owned by, the Investment Consultant Candidate ; any persons who have an ownership or distributive income share in the Investment Consultant Candidate that is in excess of 7.5%; or serves as an executive officer of the Investment Consultant Candidate . An "executive officer" shall mean any president, director, vice-president in charge of a principal business unit, division, or function (such as investment consulting, marketing, or administration), and any other employee who performs a policy-making role, regardless of the title given to their position.

3. A statement that contingent and placement fees are prohibited by Section 1-145 of the Illinois Pension Code.

“Compensation” means any money, thing of value, or economic benefit conferred on, or received by, a consultant in return for services rendered, or to be rendered, by himself, herself, or another. "Economic opportunity" means any purchase, sale, lease, contract, option, or other transaction or arrangement involving property or services wherein a consultant may gain an economic benefit.

8. Disclosure by the Investment Consultant Candidate , by any executive officer (as defined in item 2, above) or shareholder of the Investment Consultant Candidate , by any parent entity, by any executive officers of any entity that is a parent of, or owns a controlling interest in, the Investment Consultant Candidate , or by the entity itself of any financial support of $1,000 or more in a calendar year within the prior five (5) calendar years and/or formal involvement with any community or not-for-profit organization with a central purpose of influencing public policy related to budgetary and fiscal policy which directly or indirectly relates to the continued availability and long-term viability of defined benefit pensions in the public sector, education policy, and retirement security policy.

For the purposes of this disclosure, an organization has the “central purpose” of influencing policy if it is understood with the exercise of reasonable due diligence, including but not limited to the examination of the organization’s IRS filings and other publicly- available statements of purpose, that the organization intends to affect policy or engage in lobbying or other advocacy activity. An Investment Consultant Candidate is not required to disclose contributions to organizations that engage in such activities in furtherance of providing medical research, aid to the poor, disaster relief, or other such tangible goods or service. The organizations listed in Exhibit A to the Fund’s Procurement Policy presently fall under this required disclosure policy.

9. Disclosure by the Investment Consultant Candidate within five (5) business days of any change in ownership other than the ownership interests of employees of the Investment Consultant Candidate or within ten (10) business days of any legal actions instituted against the Investment Consultant Candidate , its parent entity, any entity that owns a controlling interest in the Investment Consultant Candidate , or any subsidiary of the Investment Consultant Candidate involving the investment of securities for institutional investors or of any investigations, examinations, or other proceedings commenced by any governmental regulatory agency including those that would be reportable in the disciplinary questions of Investment Consultant Candidate’s next ADV filing with the
